Cathedral Arts Festival Saturday, April 29, 2017

Cathedral Arts Festival Fast Facts

- History: For more than two and a half decades, the Cathedral Arts Festival has played a vital role in distinguishing Jersey City as a premier destination for artists. This biennial event brings the Jersey City community together with prominent and new local artists, for an evening of art exhibition, fine dining, music, dancing, a silent auction, and more.
- Attendance: 275-450
- Attendees: In addition to a diverse cross section of Jersey City residents, the mayor and other local dignitaries are invited and historically attend.
- Participating Artists: The festival brings together up to 80 artists from the tri-state area.
- Proceeds: Proceeds from the gala go to support Grace Church Van Vorst and its mission to support community programs.

Grace Church Van Vorst Fast Facts

- History: Founded in 1847, Grace Van Vorst is the oldest Episcopal Church in Jersey City.
- Motto: Community...Diversity... Creativity
- Worship: Traditional Service 9 a.m. and Contemporary Service with Children's Worship 11 a.m.
- Ministries: Grace offers a variety of ministries to members and non-members, including a toddler-drop off program and used book sale. It also hosts bible studies, prayer groups, a craft circle and fellowship programs.
- Home to Community Outreach Programs: Grace Van Vorst is host to Grace Community Services, an organization that promotes respect for human dignity for people whose chances of a promising future are diminished by isolation and food and housing insecurity. That includes the following programs-

Grace Senior Center for Healthy Living:

A central meeting place for Jersey City seniors to engage in activities and commune with one another Monday-Friday 10 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Breakfast Plus Program:

Hot, nourishing meal to homeless, unemployed, underemployed and food-insecure residents of Jersey City EVERY Saturday and Sunday from 7 a.m. – 9 a.m.

We thank you for taking part in this unparalleled celebration of art and community!
